Promise Me Texas (2013) In this heartwarming story, Roald and Ingeborg Bjorklund, along with their son, Thorliff, finally arrive at the docks of New York City. It was the promise of free land that brought them to America. Roald is a Norwegian farmer who dreamt of owning his own land, while Ingeborg longed to escape the harsh conditions of their home country. Their journey through the United States was filled with challenges and obstacles, but they remained committed to their dream of a better life. Can Roald and Ingeborg overcome the difficulties they face and make their dreams a reality?

Old West (2012) In a land of opportunity, Sunny Landers wants a big life—as big and free as the untamed land that stretches before her. Land she will help her father farm. But Sunny’s dreams are threatened by the challenges of life on the frontier, including the struggles of the open range and the power of the land itself. Can Sunny find the strength to overcome these obstacles and fulfill her dreams?

Wildfire (2013) In 1874, just two years before General George A. Custer’s death at Little Big Horn, a collection of his personal accounts of his encounters with Native American tribes was published. Custer, General in the U.S. Army’s Seventh Cavalry, wrote personal accounts of his encounters with Native American tribes in his journals and letters. His accounts provide a unique perspective on the complex dynamics of the time. Can Custer’s writings help us understand the challenges he faced and the impact of his actions on the indigenous peoples of the American West?
